Changing the Default Username and Password (HS3)

How-to change the default username and password in HS3.

The default username is: default and the default password is: default. We highly recommend that you change the username and password to something more secure. Make sure to save this information.

- 1. Open the TOOLS drop menu and click Setup.
- 2. Click the Network tab.
- 3. In the User Settings section, enter a username and password and then select user rights.
- 4. Click Add User.